Important Notice Affecting your License Agent Account

Hunter Education Validation Stamps Discontinued

In January 2005, the Department of Fish and Game (Department) implemented a new Hunter Education Certificate that has unique numbering (ex: AA000) eliminating the need for the validation stamp.

Effective January 1, 2008, hunters will no longer be required to purchase a Hunter Education Validation Stamp to affix to their Hunter Education Certificate. However, after January 1, 2008, if customers still possess the old Hunter Education Certificate (no unique number) they must contact their nearest DFG office to exchange for a new certificate with a unique number.

Do Not Sell Hunter Education Validation Stamps after December 31, 2007.

Please complete a 2007/2008 Hunting Sales Report Form and return all sold and unsold Hunter Education Validation Stamp Books (20070119) by January 20, 2008.

Bear Season Closed

The 2007 Bear Season has come to an end, reported harvest reached the allotted 1,700. Please display the enclosed flyer at your license sales counters informing customers that bear season is closed.
